MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear parents,

Welcome back to school for all families after a hopefully, enjoyable TET break.

For families that spent time with family and friends, I hope these experiences were filled with happiness, joy, and love.

As we continue our term 3 learning journey, I would like to highlight the following rewarding experiences for students at SIS@BDNC.

OBV

The Outward-bound program will be active for the remaining weeks in term 3.

Classes participating will be years 4 & 5.

The program for both these years will be held at school at SIS@BDNC.

All information and communication will be sent to parents.

If there are any concerns or more communication is needed, please contact the school office.

This information also applies for years 6,7 & 8.

Year 8 will attend in March 2024.

Years 6 & 7 programs will be in term 4, 2024.

School concert

I would like to take this opportunity to share with families that the theme for this year's end of year concert is Carnival.

Communication from class teachers will go home early in term 4.

The school looks forward to your continued support and cooperation with this wonderful end of year event.

School Uniform

Parents are to be congratulated on their consistent effort and cooperation daily with the student's uniform.

Staff are very proud of the students and the effort shown with wearing the correct uniform daily.

Hats are essential and students are being reminded to wear them when at PE and playing in the playground.

Sun safety and protection is a priority here at SIS@BDNC.

Again, parents, your support and cooperation with setting high standards with student uniform expectations is greatly appreciated.

Yours in learning,

Mr. Mark.
